Our support groups bring together people who are going through or have gone through bariatric surgery. The support group provides an opportunity for our community to share personal experiences and feelings, coping strategies, or firsthand information about health topics relating to bariatric surgery. A person's family and friends may not understand the impact of a bariatric surgery, our support group may function as a bridge between medical and emotional needs. Information shared in our meetings is kept confidential unless action is requested or vital to the safety of our support group members.

We encourage you to bring your support person(s).
Some of the information discussed may not be appropriate for children.
