

Annual Research Day

St. Elizabeth's Medical Center
A STEWARD FAMILY HOSPITAL

 Tufts
UNIVERSITY
School of Medicine

May 11th, 2023

PROGRAM

7:30 - 7:45 a.m.

Welcome & Introduction – Hybrid (Zoom & Seton Auditorium)

Joseph P. Carrozza, Jr., MD
Chair, Research Day Planning Committee

7:45 - 8:30 a.m.

Keynote Speaker – Hybrid (Zoom & Seton Auditorium)

George M. Abraham, MD, MPH, FACP, FIDSA
Chief of Medicine, St Vincent Hospital, Worcester, MA
Professor of Medicine, University of Massachusetts Medical School
Immediate-Past President, American College of Physicians

“Science on Trial: The Role of Scholarship in Today’s World”

8:30 - 10:00 a.m.

Oral Presentations – Hybrid (Zoom & Seton Auditorium)

Original Investigation (1st Place): 8:30 - 8:45 a.m.

Grace Lassiter, MD
Clinical and Molecular Correlation Defines Activity of Physiological Pathways in Life-Sustaining Kidney Xenotransplantation

Original Investigation (2nd Place): 8:45 - 9:00 a.m.

Alexandria Byskosh, MD
Is State Trauma Funding Associated with Mortality Among Injured Hospitalized Patients?

Original Investigation (3rd Place): 9:00 - 9:15 a.m.

Shane J. Softy, PharmD

Gram-Negative Antimicrobial Therapy for Pneumonia and Bacteremia Based on Local Risk Factors

Quality Improvement Report (1st Place): 9:15 - 9:30 a.m.

Waad Alrohily, PharmD

Increasing Utilization of Appropriate Heparin Monitoring Protocol in a Surgical Population

Quality Improvement Report (2nd Place): 9:30 - 9:45 a.m.

Abdallah Mughrabi, MD

HBVQI Plus: A Quality Improvement Project to Boost HBV Vaccination Rates Through Targeted Interventions

Clinical Vignette (1st Place): 9:45 - 10:00 a.m.

Daniel Yarmovsky, MD

Multifactorial Shock and Hypothermia in the Surgical Intensive Care Unit

10:00 - 10:30 a.m.

Presentation of Awards – Hybrid (Zoom & Seton Auditorium)

10:30 – 12:00 p.m.

Poster Presentation (Authors present) – Seton Auditorium